Tameside

OCTOBER 2018 - APRIL 2019

EVENTS

 Tameside
Metropolitan Borough

Welcome to Tameside's Cultural Events

There is plenty to enjoy in this programme of events throughout the Autumn, Winter and Spring months. The wide range of activities offers something for everyone whatever your interest, age or ability.

Learn a new skill in our 'I Made It' master-classes at Portland Basin Museum, or come along to a 'Making Friends with the Archives' session to discover some fascinating secrets of our borough's past.

For children we have regular 'Kids in the Environment' days and some great activities in our parks and countryside.

'Make, Do and Play' and our Little Hands drop-in sessions are always popular at Portland Basin Museum and this winter we have some great family theatre.

If you would like more information about any of the events, please phone the relevant number on the back of this leaflet.

Please note:

Cost - All the events are free unless otherwise stated.

Children - An adult must accompany children under 12 years of age.

Groups - We welcome groups, but please ring 0161 342 4144.

For group visits to the museums and galleries please ring 0161 343 2878.

PORTLAND BASIN MUSEUM

With its picturesque canal-side setting, Portland Basin Museum celebrates the lives of Tameside's people and the rich industrial history of its nine towns. Step back in time on the museum's old street, see what's new in our regularly changing exhibition space and enjoy a tasty treat in the Bridge View Café.

20 October – 31 March 2019

Accessorise!

CENTRAL ART GALLERY

The gallery has a changing programme of exhibitions by local artists and community groups, plus a permanent display of artworks by Harry Rutherford. There is always something new to see and do, so why not pop in to visit next time you're in the library?

'Brittany' by Simon Parkin

6 October – 22 December 2018

Simon Parkin:

To See the Sea

The new exhibition explores the power of the sea, the complexity of its beauty, the strength and force along with the calm and peaceful qualities. The sea can bring many different feelings, it can be seen to be destructive or it can have a transformative quality which can bring joyous feelings of transcendence and escape.

Central Art Gallery
Central Library, Old Street,

ASTLEY CHEETHAM ART GALLERY

The gallery houses the borough's stunning art collection, bequeathed by local industrialist J.F. Cheetham. We change exhibitions throughout the year to showcase different paintings from the collection. You can see some of the paintings online at www.artuk.org

'Clown' by Wendy Raphael

Until 3 November 2018

Colour:

The Art of Powerful Pigment

Using paintings from our collection, we're exploring the use of colour in art. Why do artists choose the colours they do? How do we perceive colours?

'Sir Perceval' by George Frederic Watts RA

17 November 2018 – Spring 2019
Art Treasures of Tameside

To mark 250 years of the Royal Academy of Arts this exhibition showcases the work of some of Britain's most eminent artists in the Astley Cheetham Collection.
