Updated guidance for special schools and other specialist settings

We have updated our guidance for special schools and other specialist settings to provide information on the support available to schools when sourcing supply teachers and information on the framework for supporting transport to and from schools.

It also provides information on the measures to take when teaching music, the performing arts, sports and physical education, the use of face coverings and the provision of wraparound care and extra-curricular activities.

The information below hasn’t changed since our last update.

Exam Results Helpline now available until 18 September

The Exam Results Helpline, delivered by the National Careers Service, has been extended and will now be available until 18 September to provide additional support to students and their parents as they consider their next steps. Callers to the helpline will have direct access to experienced careers advisers who can advise on the different options available to them including T levels, A levels, GCSEs, BTECs, apprenticeships and other vocational options. Support will also be available on topics such as clearing, university, gap years and the autumn exam series.
