What we might do

Sometimes I visit children at school and sometimes I visit them at home.

We might play games or do some tests. I might ask about you: what you enjoy or what you think you might need help with.

Sometimes I talk to adults from school or your parents or carers.

We can talk about what we might do together when we first meet.

My job

I'm a Trainee Educational Psychologist, but you can call me Beth.

It is my job to help children feel happy in school. I work with children to find out things like:

- What they enjoy
- What they are good at
- What they find hard
- What they would like help with

I am interested in how children talk, think, learn and play.

Children might need help with things like:

- Their schoolwork
- Making friends
- Getting around school
- Their feelings/emotions

What happens if you don't want to work with me?

If you don't want to meet me or do any work, you don't have to. We will only do as much as you want to. After we have worked together, we can talk about what you thought of working with me.

If you have any questions you can ask me or a member of staff in school.

You can contact me on: 0161 342 2218 or beth.shaw@tameside.gov.uk
