Some strong key themes have emerged which we will use to inform local recovery and service planning. A report with the findings of the sessions will be available shortly.

Covid-19 opinion and behaviour insight:

- Doctors of the world interviews with excluded people:
 - Digital exclusion and language barriers make it difficult to access Covid-19 messages
 - Gypsy, Roma and Traveller communities have been heavily impacted by job losses due to self-employment or reliance on informal or seasonal work
 - Fear and distrust of health professionals, the NHS and government caused by legislation that increases certain groups' risk of criminalisation, and previous negative experiences with the criminal and justice system, immigration services and social care are preventing people seeking advice on and healthcare for Covid-19
 - Shared accommodation and lack of living space make it difficult to follow government guidelines around staying at home, physical distancing, self-isolation and shielding
 - Excluded groups routinely face barriers to GP registration, often being turned away because of their inability to provide proof of address or ID documents
